
Sani Lawal Mohammed

Rector, African Institute of International Law, and Member, National Institute of Nigeria

Mr. Sani Lawal Mohammed is a member of the National Institute of Nigeria (MNI). He obtained his Bachelor of Law degree (LLB) at the Ahmadu Bello University Zaria, Nigeria (1979). He then obtained a Barrister of Law certificate (BL) at the Nigerian Law School Lagos (1980). His Masters of Law degree (LLM) was completed at the University of Lagos, Graduate School of Law (1990).

He is a retired Federal Permanent Secretary, a former Ambassador to Egypt, Eretria and Palestine Authority. He is also a former Nigerian Consul General at Johannesburg, South Africa. He is the founder and first Executive Director of the International Law Institute, Nigeria. He is Chair of the Board of Trustee at the Foundation for the Advancement of Values & Ethics in Nigeria and he is Vice President of the Centre for Attitudinal Healing in Nigeria. He is also a consultant for the Adam Smith Int., UK. He served as a member of several Committees and as the African Union Commission Chairperson for the observer mission to the Peoples' Republic of Algeria Presidential Election.

Ambassador Mohammed is currently the Rector for the African Institute of International Law, in Arusha, Tanzania. Mr. Mohammed has authored and presented several papers in many regional and international conferences.