

SDG 16 CONFERENCE

Peace, Justice & Inclusive Societies

SDG 16 as a compass for navigating intersecting crises

30 May – 1 June 2023
Rome, Italy

SPEAKER BIO

Mr. David Kode, Advocacy and Campaigns Lead, CIVICUS

David Kode is currently the Advocacy and Campaigns Lead at CIVICUS and has fifteen years experience working with civil society groups, social movements and grassroots communities in different regions of the world. He is an expert on democracy and human rights and has published extensively on the rule of law, participatory democracy, the enabling environment for civil society, conflict and conflict resolution. He is consulted regularly by INGOs, foreign affairs ministries and development partners on strategy development and sits on the Board and Governance Committees of civil society coalitions across Africa including the Association for Research on Civil Society in Africa (AROCSA) and the Fight Inequality Alliance. He has extensive experience working with civil society organizations and engaging with regional and international human rights mechanisms including the UN Human Rights Council, the African Commission on Human and Peoples Rights and Regional Economic Communities. He regularly writes opinion pieces for media platforms and conducts media interviews on civic space trends, conflict, democracy and human rights. He has a Masters Degree in International Relations and Political Economy from the University of the Witwatersrand.