SPEAKER BIO

Ms. Lynrose Jane D. Genon, Executive Council Member, Young Women+ Leaders for Peace – Philippines (YW+PL-PH)

Lynrose Jane D. Genon is a member of the Executive Council of Young Women+ Leaders for Peace-Philippines (YW+PL-PH), a network of young women leaders and allies working on the localization of the intersections of Youth Peace and Security (YPS) and Women Peace and Security (WPS) in the Philippines. She is a faculty member at Mindanao State University-Iligan Institute of Technology (MSU-IIT), who is presently on study leave to pursue her PhD at the Digital Media Research Center (DMRC) of the Queensland University of Technology (QUT) in Australia, where she is currently researching “digital peacebuilding” focusing on young women leaders in the Philippines. Lynrose has previously served as the director of MSU-IIT's Policy Center for Human Rights and Sustainable Development. She was also a cohort of the UNDP's '16x16' Initiative which supports 16 activists from all over the world in advancing SDG 16. She holds a Bachelor of Arts in English and an MA in Culture and Arts Studies. Her work focuses on Youth Leadership, Education, Digital Inclusion and Participation, and Peace.
