

APPLICATION FORM FOR THE IDLO-SCBD CAPACITY BUILDING COURSE

Course Title: Establishing Measures to Implement the Nagoya Protocol
Format: Blended approach including e-learning sessions, face-to-face workshop and online discussion forums
Deadline for application: 15 January 2018

Six regional face-to-face workshops are planned to take place in 2018 with the following tentative dates:

- Central Africa (in French): 9 to 13 April
- Asia (in English): 28 May to 1 June
- Latin America (in Spanish): 18 to 22 June
- Pacific Islands (in English): 23 to 27 July
- Central Eastern Europe (in English): 10 to 14 September
- Western Africa (in French): 17 to 21 September

To apply, please complete this application form and attach a CV, a cover letter (max. 2 pages) highlighting your relevant experience and interests; as well as a letter of endorsement by the ABS National Focal Point or CBD National Focal Point (when an ABS focal point has not yet been designated) and send via email to ABSLawnetwork@idlo.int by 15 January 2018. Please ensure to explain your motivation for taking this course, in particular:

- Why you are interested in gaining skills to provide legal advice and build capacities of government to support national legislative processes to implement the Nagoya Protocol; and
- How you can put in practice what you learn from the course in your country and region.

Applicants are encouraged to highlight their relevant qualifications and experience based on the following selection criteria:

- > A university degree, preferably related to law or public policy at the Master's or Ph.D. level;
- > Degree of engagement with national processes related to the implementation of the Nagoya Protocol;
- > Working knowledge of the language in which the face-to-face workshop will be held, e.g. English, French or Spanish;
- > Demonstrated leadership potential and communication skills;
- > Availability and commitment to complete the 6-week online training course and the 5-day face-to-face workshop.

Selected candidates from developing countries will receive funding to cover travel, accommodation and meal costs.
