Provision of Vehicle Insurance Services

IDLO Country Office Kabul – Afghanistan

Background:

International Development Law Organization (hereafter referred to as "IDLO") is an intergovernmental organization that is currently continuing implementation of three major rule of law programs – Continuing Professional Development Support (CPDS), Supporting Access to Justice in Afghanistan (SAJA) II and Reducing the Impact of Insecurity on Afghanistan's Legal System (RIAALS) – through which it aims to increase the ability of the Afghan legal system to provide fair, efficient, and equal justice to all citizens and to improve prevention and protection for women and children from harm, exploitation, discrimination and abuse, including sexual and gender-based violence and trafficking in persons. IDLO is intent on acquiring the service of reputed Insurance Company to provide Comprehensive and Third- party insurance at competitive rates for its transport fleet. The fleet consists of 8 vehicles of different models, types and capacities. The fleet operates exclusively within Kabul, Afghanistan.

Objectives:

Insurance is mandatory under the motor vehicle Act. Therefore, IDLO must acquire a Motor Vehicle Insurance Policy for the maximum coverage required under Afghan law against theft, accidental, political violence and third-party liability. IDLO will be looking for the benefits of the insurance carrier, innovative features and hassle-free claims processing.

Breakdown of the requested benefits:

- Physical Damage - Protection against theft, collision, glass breakage or other physical perils for our vehicles. Excluding war/civil war, strikes, riots, civil commotion, etc. $500,000 limit per occurrence; deductibles per vehicle to be noted on the quote
- Mandatory local third-party insurance
- Excess Third-Party Liability - Coverage for damages IDLO becomes legally obligated to pay to a third party due to bodily injury or property damage. This layer of liability coverage will sit on top of the local auto liability requirements. The limit quoted is for $1,000,000 per vehicle, per occurrence.
- Political Violence - Damage to IDLO vehicle arising from war, terrorism, civil commotion, riot, strike, etc. Limit and deductible to be noted on the quote. The deductible will be an annual aggregate basis. Covered claims to be paid after the deductible is met one time during the policy period, up to the annual aggregate limit ($1,000,000).

Personal accident insurance:

- Personal accident insurance for driver or passengers – no fault Accidental Death / Dismemberment benefits for the driver or passengers of insured IDLO vehicles including employees, volunteers or any third-party passengers. This also will cover vehicle accidents arising out of acts of war and terrorism. Price to be submitted as premiums per vehicle based on the location and number of passengers (less than 7 passengers). The policy being requested should provide coverage within the limits below:

Ø Limits

- o Accidental Death / Dismemberment & Permanent Total Disablement - $25,000 per insured person
- o Children (up to age 15) – All Benefits $10,000
- o Per occurrence / event limit - $125,000
- o Policy aggregate limit - $250,000

Details on each of the vehicles can be found in the attached Excel spreadsheet. Additional information and details include:

1. Security at the garaging sites: Access to all IDLO compounds are controlled by unarmed security guards. Vehicles are parked in a secure car park and no vehicle is driven outside of the compound unless authorized by the IDLO Security Department. Movements are restricted to Kabul and a maximum of 20km outside the city center of Kabul.
2. Maximum Number of vehicles and value at any one location / Maximum exposure at any one location: Please see the attached list for vehicles.
3. Do the vehicles travel in convoy? If so, how many vehicles in one convoy: IDLO vehicles do not travel in convoy.
4. A. Maximum convoys on road at any given time N/A. Maximum number of vehicles at garaging location 8 (Kabul City).
5. Convoy security details: N/A
6. Details of the Security Company: IDLO does not use a security provider for road missions. Road missions are conducted by an IDLO driver in Kabul and occasionally IDLO Security Officer accompanies the driver.
7. Security protocol for on-road risk: IDLO has detailed Standard Operating Procedures relating to all movements by road. Drivers have been and continue to be trained in these protocols. All vehicles are tracked during movements.
8. Details on locations and routes where the vehicles will be used: various locations within Kabul city and a maximum of 20 km outside the city center. No route names/numbers available.
9. What is the general use and purpose of the Vehicle i.e. in terms of how many trips per day/week; what distances; transporting clients: Day to day use is largely in the city center and peripheral Police Districts. Vehicles are used to transport IDLO staff for their daily meetings, workshops, training classes, and social events.
10. General risk parameters of project or area: There many risk factors in Kabul varying from Road traffic accidents, natural disasters, civil unrest to Terrorism which remains biggest risk in Kabul. The most common types of terrorism incidents within Kabul are MIED's, IEDs, assassination type attacks, suicide and complex attacks on international compound and government facilities. IDLO's biggest risk is being caught up in collateral damage during an attack on third party locations visited by IDLO or whilst traveling being at the wrong place at the wrong time. The frequency of these incidents various from month to month.

11. Details of incidents / claims for last 3 years due to a Political event such as war, terrorism, strikes, and riots etc.: None.

Annex E

IDLO General Terms and Conditions for the Procurement of Services

Any bid submission will imply the unconditional acceptance of IDLO General Terms and Conditions and adherence to the Supplier Code of Conduct for the Procurement of Services.

Annex F

IDLO Supplier Code of Conduct

IDLO recognizes the universal and fundamental values enshrined in international instruments in the areas of human rights, labor, environment and anti-corruption.

IDLO expects its Suppliers to respect fundamental social and human rights, and the equal rights of men and women, take responsibility for minimizing the environmental impact of their activities, endorse ethical business practices and reach the following goals:

1. Supplier Relationships: The provisions of this Code of Conduct set forth the expectations of all suppliers with whom IDLO does business. IDLO expects that these principles apply to suppliers, parent entities and subsidiary or affiliate entities, as well as all others with whom they do business including employees, subcontractors and other third-parties. IDLO expects suppliers to ensure that the rules and standards of this Code of Conduct are communicated to their employees and subcontractors.

2. Promoting the Principles of this Code of Conduct: IDLO expects that its suppliers will establish and maintain appropriate management systems whose scope is related to the content of this Code of Conduct, and that they actively review, monitor and modify their management processes and business operations to ensure they align with the principles set forth in this Code of Conduct. All principles contained in this Code of Conduct are of equal importance independently of their order of appearance.

3. Subcontracting: IDLO expects that its suppliers encourage and work with their own suppliers and subcontractors to ensure that they also strive to meet the principles of this Code of Conduct or equivalent set of principles.

Labor:

4. Freedom of Association and Collective Bargaining: IDLO expects its suppliers to recognize and respect the rights of employees to freely associate, organize and bargain collectively in accordance with the laws of the countries in which they are employed, as well as core international principles on Freedom of Association and collective bargaining. IDLO recognizes the importance of open communication and direct engagement between workers and management and suppliers are to respect the rights of workers to associate freely and communicate openly with management regarding working conditions without fear of harassment, intimidation, penalty, interference or reprisal.

5. Forced Labor: IDLO expects its suppliers to prohibit any use of forced, bonded or indentured labor or involuntary prison labor, and embrace employment practices consistent with international rules on forced labor. All work, including overtime work, will be voluntary and workers should be free to leave upon reasonable notice. Suppliers should also not mandate that workers hand over government-issued identification, passports or work permits as a condition of employment.

6. Child Labor: IDLO expects its suppliers, at a minimum, not to engage in any practice inconsistent with the rights set forth in the Convention on the Rights of the Child. The minimum admission to employment or work shall not be less than the age of completion of compulsory schooling, normally not less than 15 years or 14 where the local law of the country permits, deferring to the greatest age. Additionally, all young workers must be protected from performing any work that is likely to be hazardous or to interfere with the child's education or that may be harmful to the child's health, physical, mental, social, spiritual or moral development. All suppliers should also adhere to legitimate workplace apprenticeship programs and comply with all laws and regulations governing child labor and apprenticeship programs.

7. Discrimination: IDLO does not tolerate any form of discrimination in hiring and employment practices on the ground or race, color, religion, gender, sexual orientation, age, physical ability, health condition, political opinion, nationality, social or ethnic origin, union membership or marital status. IDLO also discourages discrimination regarding access to training, promotion, and rewards.

8. Working Hours: IDLO expects its suppliers to comply with all applicable working hour requirements as established by local law, and should never exceed 60 hours per week, including overtime, except in emergency or unusual situations. Suppliers must ensure that all overtime work is voluntary and compensated at the prevailing overtime rates. Suppliers are encouraged to ensure that workers are provided with one day off in every seven-day week.

9. Compensation: IDLO expects its suppliers to comply, at a minimum, with all wage and hour laws and regulations, including those pertaining to minimum wages, overtime wages, piece rates, other elements of compensation and to provide legally mandated benefits.

Human Rights:

10. Human Rights: IDLO expects its suppliers to support and respect the protection of internationally proclaimed human rights and to ensure that they are not complicit in human rights abuses.

11. Harassment, Harsh or Inhumane Treatment: IDLO expects its suppliers to create and maintain an environment that treats all employees with dignity and respect and will not use any threats of violence, sexual exploitation or abuse, verbal or psychological harassment or abuse. No harsh or inhumane treatment coercion or corporal punishment of any kind is tolerated, nor is there to be the threat of any such treatment.

12. Health and Safety: IDLO expects its suppliers to follow all relevant legislation, regulations and directives in the country in which they operate to ensure a safe and healthy workplace or any other location where production or work is undertaken. At a minimum, suppliers should strive to implement recognized management systems; reasonable access to potable water and sanitary facilities; fire safety; emergency preparedness and response; industrial hygiene; adequate lighting and ventilation; and occupational injury and illness and machine safeguarding. Suppliers will also ensure these same standards apply to any dormitory or canteen facilities.

13. Mines: IDLO expects its suppliers to strive not to engage in the sale or manufacture of anti-personnel mines or components utilized in the manufacture of anti-personnel mines.

Environment:

14. Environmental: IDLO expects its suppliers to comply with existing legislation and regulations regarding the protection of the environment. Suppliers should wherever possible support a precautionary approach to environmental matters, undertake initiatives to promote greater environmental responsibility and encourage the diffusion of environmentally friendly technologies implementing sound life-cycle practices.

15. Chemical and Hazardous Materials: Chemical and other materials posing a hazard if released to the environment are to be identified and managed to ensure their safe handling, movement, storage, recycling or reuse and disposal.

16. Wastewater and Solid Waste: Wastewater and solid waste generated from operations, industrial processes and sanitation facilities are to be monitored, controlled and treated as required prior to discharge or disposal.

17. Air Emissions: Air emissions of volatile organic chemicals, aerosols, corrosives, particulates, ozone depleting chemicals and combustion by-products generated from operations are to be characterized, monitored, controlled and treated as required prior to discharge.

18. Minimize Waste, Maximize Recycling: Waste of all types, including water and energy, are to be reduced or eliminated at the source or by practices such as modifying production, maintenance and facility processes, materials substitution, conservation, recycling and re-using materials.

Drug trafficking and Terrorism:

19. Drug Trafficking: IDLO expects its suppliers to warrant that neither they, nor any of their employees and subcontractors, are engaged in the manufacture, sale, transportation, or distribution of any drug or narcotic substance deemed to be illegal in either the country of manufacture or delivery of the goods or services to be provided to IDLO.

20. Terrorism: IDLO expects its suppliers to warrant that neither they, nor any of their employees and subcontractors, are engaged directly or indirectly in terrorism, or in the finance or support to terrorists. Further, IDLO expects its suppliers to warrant that neither they nor their staff, nor any other recipients of funds from the supply of goods or services to IDLO, are listed in any sanctions list maintained by the United Nations Security Council; the United States Department of the Treasury, Office of Foreign Assets Control; or the European Union. Should the supplier, its staff, or other recipients of funds from the supply of goods or services to IDLO be included in any of the above-listed sanctions lists, the supplier is expected to notify IDLO immediately.

Bribery & Corruption:

21. Corruption: IDLO expects its suppliers to adhere to the highest standard of moral and ethical conduct, to respect local laws and not engage in any form of corrupt practices, including extortion, fraud, or bribery, at a minimum.

22. Conflict of Interest: IDLO suppliers are expected to disclose to IDLO any situation that may appear as a conflict of interest, and disclose to IDLO if any IDLO official or professional under contract with IDLO may have an interest of any kind in the supplier's business or any kind of economic ties with the supplier.

23. Gifts and Hospitality: IDLO does not accept any type of gift or any offer of hospitality. IDLO will not accept any invitations to sporting or cultural events, offers of holidays or other recreational trips, transportation, or invitations to lunches or dinners. IDLO expects its suppliers not to offer any benefit such as free goods or services or a work position or sales opportunity to IDLO personnel in order to facilitate the supplier's business with IDLO.

24. Monitoring and Evaluation: IDLO may conduct on-site evaluations and inspections of its suppliers' facilities and those of their subcontractors to review their progress towards these principles. It is the expectation of IDLO that suppliers, at a minimum, have established clear goals toward meeting the standards set forth in this Code of Conduct. IDLO may monitor that milestones have been set and management systems have been put in place to ensure that the principles set out in this Code of Conduct have been met and failure to do so may impact the future ability of a supplier to do business with IDLO.
