Alternatively, you can also connect by phone, using the dial-in instructions included in the registration confirmation email.
2. Recording. Please be informed that the webinar will be recorded. The recording and a post-webinar report of the panel discussion will be made public in order to inform wider policy discussions on addressing the justice needs of survivors of gender-based violence during and after the COVID-19 pandemic.
3. Mute mode: The webcams and microphones of all attendees will be disabled during the webinar. Only if given permission by the host, an attendee can be unmuted and talk during the webinar. If the host allows an attendee to talk, he/she will receive a notification.
4. Chat: The chat room will be enabled for this webinar. Attendees are allowed to send chat messages to the host, panelists, and attendees via the in-meeting chat.
5. Raise Hand: Attendees can use the 'Raise hand' feature during the webinar to indicate that they need something from the host. The host may instruct them to type the question in the Q&A window.
6. Question & Answer: Attendees may use the Q&A window to ask questions. Attendees can like or comment on other attendees' questions. Rea Abada Chiongson and Raluca Popa from IDLO will monitor the Q&A window and direct the questions to the moderator. Attendees can also send questions to Rea or Raluca via the chat window and their questions will be directed to the moderator. Attendees are asked not to send questions directly to the panellists. The moderator and panellists will answer the questions live. Due to the high volume of registrations, we are expecting a significant amount of questions as well. We apologize in advance, if we are unable to answer your questions live. We may get back to you after the webinar, if your question has not been answered.
7. Country/Organization: When asking a question, attendees are kindly requested to type/mention their name and Country / Organization.
