ANNEX C TERMS OF REFERENCE

A. About IDLO

The International Development Law Organization (IDLO) is an intergovernmental organization exclusively devoted to promoting the rule of law. Established in 1983, IDLO works to enable governments and empower people to reform laws and strengthen institutions to promote peace, justice, sustainable development and economic opportunity. Its programs, research and policy advocacy cover the spectrum of rule of law from peace and institution building to social development and economic recovery in countries emerging from conflict and striving towards democracy.

The Assembly of Parties is IDLO's highest decision-making body. It is composed of Representatives of all Member Parties, which have joined the Establishment Agreement of IDLO. IDLO currently has 37 Member Parties.

IDLO has its Headquarters in Rome, a Branch Office in The Hague, Liaison Offices for the United Nations in New York and Geneva, and Country Offices in Afghanistan, Armenia, the Bahamas, Burkina Faso, Honduras, Indonesia, Kenya, Kyrgyzstan, Jordan, Liberia, Mali, Mexico, Moldova, Mongolia, Myanmar, Niger, the Philippines, Somalia, Tunisia, Uganda and Ukraine.

The work of IDLO is sustained by a dynamic, diverse, multinational and multicultural workforce, comprised of over 400 employees plus additional personnel in the non-employee category such as consultants and interns. About one fourth of the IDLO workforce is based in its Headquarters in Rome, while the rest are spread across the globe in our Branch and Country offices.

B. Background

The International Development Law Organization (IDLO) enables governments, empowers people, and strengthens institutions to realize justice and promote peace and sustainable development. IDLO is the only global intergovernmental organization exclusively devoted to promoting the rule of law and access to justice. With its headquarters in Rome, Italy, a Branch Office in The Hague, and Permanent Observer Missions to the United Nations in New York and Geneva, IDLO carries out policy advocacy, research, and learning, as well as rule of law and justice programmes in countries through some 17 Country Offices operating in every region of the world.

In Somalia, IDLO has extensive experience and a good track record of implementing successful rule of law programmes in Somalia. Since 2012, IDLO has been working with government authorities at both the federal and state levels as well as key justice institutions and the informal justice system to enable them to fulfill their core functions, improve governance and strengthen access to justice for citizens, particularly for the most vulnerable. IDLO is currently implementing several programmes in Somalia and one of those programmes is the Somalia Justice Support Programme (SOMJUST). The programme is funded by the U.S. Department of State, Bureau of International Narcotics and Law Enforcement Affairs (INL) and responds to the national priorities, as outlined in the 2020-2024 National Development Plan, and puts a strong emphasis on the establishment of a well-coordinated and functioning criminal justice chain as well as clear and effective coordination mechanisms.

C. Expected Output

IDLO is looking to establish one or several Framework Agreement(s) with able and qualified Suppliers. A Framework Agreement is a type of agreement with its terms and conditions under which procurement of goods or services can be affected over a specified period, but which places no obligation on IDLO to order any minimum or maximum quantity. All terms and conditions including the prices will remain unchanged during the period of the Framework Agreement(s). The duration for Framework Agreement(s) is 12 months with an option to extend at the same price, terms and conditions for a second 12-month period subject to satisfactory performance and agreement by both parties. A Work Order will be issued when IDLO intends to make a commitment against Framework Agreements. The Work Order will provide information on the exact items, its quantities and unit prices (lifted from the Framework Agreement) in addition to other logistic details.

This RFP is for Translation and interpretation services.

After entering into a Framework Agreement, IDLO shall place an order on a “need basis”.

IDLO shall initiate a Secondary Tender to request confirmation from the Supplier on its service availability and prices by email. The Supplier shall confirm by return email within 48 hours (including any applicable discounts).

IDLO shall make award decisions based on the “lowest priced, most technically acceptable/compliant offer”.

The confirmed award shall be in the form of a duly authorized Work Order. The Work Order is IDLO's commitment against Framework Agreements. The Work Order will provide information on the exact items, its quantities, and unit prices (lifted from the Framework Agreement) in addition to other logistic details.

The duration of the Framework Agreement(s) is 12 months with an option to extend at the same price, terms, and conditions for a second 12-month period subject to satisfactory performance and agreement by both parties.

D. Summary of Services Required

Lots	Description of service
Lot 1	Daily Interpretation services
Lot 2	Legal translation for 270 words

E. Institutional Arrangement

Translations and interpretation may be requested by different offices/units at IDLO. The requesting unit will raise purchase requisition for the procurement unit to finalize the process.

F. Duration of the Work

The Framework Agreement will initially be signed for a period of up to 12 months. IDLO is not obliged to use the services provided by the Contractor.

IDLO will review the quality of services and deliverables during the initial 12-month period of the provision of services. Subject to satisfactory performance and agreement by both parties the Framework Agreement may be extended for a further two x 24-month periods.

The prices will remain unchanged during the period of contract implementation and details of deadlines will be discussed/agreed in advance with the provider and included in the relevant Work Orders issued under the Framework Agreement.

G. Work Location

Translation Services are expected to be carried out remotely and delivered to the relevant contracting manager at IDLO via email (or other electronic means), interpretation services will be required for meeting, training and other important sessions in various parts of Mogadishu city depending on where the events are held.

H. Qualifications of the Successful Contractor

The successful Contractor will need to provide proof of an outstanding roster of qualified and certified translators and interpreters. A minimum of one for each of the service is required. (For English and Somalia, other languages optional), with the following qualifications:
